Youth Counselor-in-Training Application
Summer at St. James 2017

Counselors-in-Training are youth age 14-15 who would like the opportunity to volunteer to work at one of the summer camps in preparation for possibly becoming a youth counselor in future years. This is strictly an unpaid volunteer position. Counselors-in-Training must attend the Counselor Training Day on Wednesday, June 7 and attend one of our CPR Training Days. Counselors-in-Training will work directly under the supervision of the one of the youth counselors during a specific camp. Once the week is over, feedback will be given on your strengths and what you will need to work on in order to be considered for hire the following year. If you would like the opportunity to be a counselor in- training, please complete the information below and turn in by no later than April 15.
